

Get your Kodaks and Supplies at our Drug Store

What's the use of taking pictures if they are not GOOD?

Come to us for your kodak and photo supplies and you will be sure to have the best pictures that can be made.

Our goods are from the best makers and are always fresh.

Sole agents for Eastman Kodaks.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

LOCAL ITEMS.

Gus W. Lovell, of Cincinnati, was a business visitor here last week for a few days.

Simon and Roy Banks were visiting friends in Gate City Sunday.

Attorney Ezra T. Carter, of Gate City, is in town attending United States Court.

Martin Carnes spent Sunday in Bristol visiting friends.

L. B. Howard, of Pennington Gap, was among the attorneys in town this week attending U. S. Court.

Mrs. Helen Bright, who has been spending the summer with Mrs. Everett Drennon, returned Saturday to her home in Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. J. B. Richmond, of Norton, spent last week visiting Mrs. Cora Kilbourne near the L. & N. depot.

Miss Elizabeth Wells, of Norton, is spending a few days in town with her sister, Mrs. I. W. Nickles.

Mrs. Chas. F. Camp is spending several days with friends and relatives in Bluefield.

Miss Bertha Mahaffey is spending this week at Inman with friends.

Mrs. M. R. McCorkle spent a few days last week at McCorkle above Dante with M. R. McCorkle and her son, M. R. Jr.

Claude F. Beverly, of Norton, is attended court here this week.

Master Stuart Napier, of Turkey Cove, was in town a few days last week visiting the family of W. T. Mahaffey.

Mrs. J. C. McConnell, of Gate City, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Wampler.

Miss Lula Mahaffey is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Davis, at Imboden this week.

Miss Louise Dockins and little niece, Francis Hobson, of Bowling Green, Ky., are visiting Miss Dockins' brother, E. A. Dockins, for a few days in the Gap.

Miss Ruth Phorr returned Friday from a two weeks visit to friends and relatives in Salem and Washington, D. C.

Miss Gustava Parsons spent several days last week visiting relatives on the Pound.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Parsons, of Toms Creek, spent a few days in the Gap last week visiting relatives near the L. & N. Depot.

Mrs. Grover Barney and daughter, Reba, are spending this week with relatives near Olinger.

Mrs. W. H. Carnes and daughter, Miss Mary, returned Friday night from Gray W. Va., where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carnes for several days.

Miss Georgia Satterfield, of Abingdon, arrived in the Gap Tuesday, where she will spend a few days with Miss Margaret Carnes.

Miss Lillian Bowman, who has been filling the vacancy in one of the offices in the Stonegap Coke & Coal Company for a few weeks, returned Saturday to her home in Knoxville.

Miss Matt Nickels returned to her home in the Gap Thursday from Duffield where she has been spending several weeks.

Jas. M. Ayers, of Lebanon, Va., was visiting in town last Thursday.

R. E. Gobble, of Bristol, was a business visitor to the Gap last Friday.

W. H. Leedy, of Dunganon, was a business visitor in the Gap last Friday.

Miss Olga Horton, of Osaka, spent last Thursday in the Gap visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilly.

J. H. Kelly, of the Intermont Coal and Iron Corporation at Josephine, was in town Friday on business.

Attorneys E. M. Fulton and E. L. Barr, of Wise, were in town a few days last week on professional business.

Geo. R. Marrs, who holds a position with the Clinchfield Coal Corporation at Wilder, spent Sunday with homefolks in the Gap.

Mrs. Earl Pruner has as her summer guests, Mrs. Oscar Banks and two children, of Stanford, Ky.—Lebanon News.

Rev. Jas. M. Smith will fill his regular appointments next Sunday at the Presbyterian Church at 10 a. m., at Buffalo Gap Chapel at 3:30 p. m. and at Cracker's Neck at 8:15 p. m. A cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

Misses Parilee Bickley and Edna Gilly spent Sunday at Coeburn, the guests of Mrs. Robt. Carrioco.

Dr. I. P. Martin, Presiding Elder of the Big Stone Gap district, has been in Norton the past week. Dr. Martin is closing his fourth year and will have to move, but he will report one of the strongest organizations at the Annual Conference of all the districts represented.—Norton Reporter.

Miss Lucy Doty, who has been spending several days in the Gap with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Bogard, returned to her home in Lexington, Ky., Sunday night.

Mrs. N. D. Pressley and little son returned Friday from a several days visit to relatives in Scott County.

Misses Elizabeth and Lucile McIlhenny, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. H. J. Burtinett, for the past three weeks in the Gap return to their home in Bluefield Sunday.

Mrs. R. W. Flanary spent Saturday with relatives at Jonesville.

C. S. Carter, A. J. Hood, J. D. Anderson, Caney Collier, R. T. Irvine, J. W. Chalkley, H. J. Ayers, R. A. Ayers, Geo. L. Taylor and D. M. Hodges, of the Gap, and Hop Elkins and Clay Stewart, of East Stone Gap, were among those who attended the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Ninth District at Bristol Friday and Saturday.

Little Miss Rachel Vaughan Hodges is spending several days in the Gap visiting her father, D. M. Hodges, at the home of Dr. J. A. Gilmer.

Mrs. Gus Lovell and two daughters, Misses Sarah and Katharine, of Cincinnati, returned to the Gap Thursday, where they will visit friends a few days from Lebanon where they have been visiting relatives for a few weeks.

Miss Florence McCormick, who has been attending the State Normal School at Radford six weeks, returned last week to her home in the Gap.

Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. Henry Lane and baby, and Miss Margaret Barron returned Sunday night from a week's visit to relatives in Rye Cove.

Miss Elizabeth Tinley, of Shamokin, Pa., spent Wednesday in the Gap the guest of Miss Mary Connor. Wednesday evening Miss Connor gave a delightful dinner party in honor of Miss Tinley.

Mrs. W. P. Hall, Jr., and two small sons, of Norton, spent a few days in the Gap last week visiting the Misses Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wax spent Wednesday in Norton with relatives.

Misses Bess Wygal, Gene and Burr Wolfe, of Dryden, and Edna Pennington, of Mohawk, Tenn., spent Thursday in the Gap, the guests of Miss Mary Skeen, enroute to their homes.

Miss Retta Thompson returned Thursday from a two weeks visit to friends at Toms Creek and Crane's Nest.

Miss Lollie Lewis, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. L. Rowe for several weeks, left Friday morning for Johnson City, where she will join her sister, Mrs. Wade Barrier.

Mrs. M. R. McCorkle went up to Dante Friday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Blaine McCorkle, who are the proud parents of a new daughter, born Thursday.

Miss Georgie Bostwick went over to Johnson City Friday morning on business for the firm of Morison, Morison and Robertson.

R. T. Irvine, C. S. Carter, Elkanah Collier and other good Democrats went over to Bristol Friday to be on hand for the Convention Saturday.

Archdeacon Rich and Rev. W. W. Thompson conducted services at the Episcopal church Wednesday evening.

Dan Richmond came up from Ewing and spent several days in town last week visiting his brother, C. B. Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe P. Cochran, of Chatham, Va., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cochran at this place.

Judge and Mrs. H. C. McDowell, of Lynchburg, are the guests of Mrs. John Fox, Sr., this week.

Alec Bean, the pleasant and capable manager of the Ford Service Shop at this place, was on the sick list the last of the week.

Earl Gillenwater and Aubrey Dixon were down from Norton Thursday night.

The Southwest Insurance Agency have moved their office from the room adjoining the bank into the office formerly occupied by Mayo Cabell.

Wade M. Miles, a prominent and popular court stenographer of Wise, was a visitor to the Gap last Thursday, and paid this office a pleasant visit.

Mrs. Broyles and daughter, Gertrude, of Norton, spent Friday in the Gap visiting Mrs. I. W. Nickles.

Mrs. I. W. Nickles returned last week from a few days visit to relatives in Norton. Her two children Louise and William, who have been spending the summer with their grandparents accompanied her home.

Mrs. A. L. Wilbite, of Knoxville, is spending sometime in the Gap with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Harris, in her apartments in the Touraine Flats.

C. W. Henry, District Manager for the Dodge Bros. Motor Car Company, of Indianapolis, was in town the last of the week.

Miss Laura Cosby, of Raleigh, N. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Long last week.

May We Have Your Patronage?

No man who is human can fail to appreciate high quality in CLOTHING when it is sold at modest or medium prices.

We are selling summer clothing of the finest quality at extremely low prices, and you can not help a feeling of elation when you buy one of them. Everybody who gets them does—and nearly everybody gets them from us. Our Hats, Underclothing, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Hosiery, etc., are all sold on the same low price basis. When you want anything GOOD, come to us. You always come out ahead when you buy clothing and furnishings at this store.

W. W. Taylor & Sons

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

Radford State Normal School for Women

Trains teachers for the Primary Grades, for the Grammar Grades, and for High School. Domestic Science and Manual Arts, Courses, many Special Courses. Free scholarships for all teachers.

New Buildings, modern dormitories with hot and cold water in each room, abundant equipment, strong faculty, active Young Woman's Christian Association, flourishing Literary Societies, many student organizations and associations, Good Library, free Reading Room, Vocal Music, Piano and Violin.

Large shady campus, pure artesian water, large gymnasium, tennis courts, outdoor recreations and games, swimming pool in the Administration Building, climate and scenery unsurpassed, health conditions ideal.

For Catalogue, Booklet of Views, and Full Information write.

JOHN PRESTON MCCONNELL, President, EAST RADFORD, VA.

Robt. Fox, of Winchester, Ky., is spending some time in the Gap visiting relatives. Mr. Fox is a brother of the late John Fox, Sr., of this place.

There will be services at the Episcopal Church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. H. L. Goodman and children, who have been visiting Mrs. L. T. Winston, left Sunday morning for Roanoke, where they will visit for some time before returning to their home in West Virginia.

FOR SALE.—Six room two story residence. All rooms large and well lighted. All modern conveniences. Located in one of the best communities in Big Stone Gap. For further information apply to the editor of this paper.

D. B. Wentz, of Philadelphia, president of the Stonegap Coke & Coal Company, is spending a few days in the Gap this week looking after the interests of his company.

Miss Florence Hess, of Middlesboro, is visiting Misses Edith and Ethel Van Gorder this week at their home near the extract works.

Robert Brown, who spent several days in the Gap visiting relatives, returned to his home in Middlesboro Monday night. Carl Knight returned home with him and will spend a few days there visiting his aunt, Mrs. R. L. Brown.

Mrs. Henry Morison and four attractive children, Lucy, Amelia, Henry, Jr., and Kyle, returned to their beautiful bungalow on Poplar Hill Saturday after spending the summer with relatives at Johnson City.

Miss Mary Blair Martin, the attractive daughter of Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Martin, returned Saturday from Abingdon where she underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in the Hospital there a few weeks ago.

Miss Willie McDowell, of Jonesville, has accepted the position as stenographer in Bullitt and Chalkley's office recently vacated by Miss Carrie Watts. Miss McDowell is with her aunt, Mrs. J. G. Munsey, on Poplar Hill.

C. J. Reasor, a prominent farmer residing near Olinger, was in town last week on business and while here called and had the Post sent to his brother, D. F. Reasor, at Perdie, Mo.

The Interstate Finance and Trust Company are having the interior of their banking house remodeled and improved, which will add greatly to the convenience and comfort of both their employees and patrons.

Judge J. W. Orr, of Jonesville, was a business visitor to the Gap last week, and while here made the editor a very pleasant call. Judge Orr is one of Lee County's most prominent citizens.

Joe S. Kite was over from Bristol the last of the week.

Mr. Boze, of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company's camp across the dummy bridge, returned from his vacation Monday night bringing with him a bride, much to the surprise of his tentmates. Mr. and Mrs. Boze will have a room in the Polly building while the work of setting up poles continues at this point.

Misses Lelia and Goldie Beaman left Friday night over the L. & N. for Anderson, Ind., where they will spend two months with their sister, Mrs. Ralph Hauck.

Mrs. Eula Young Morrison is moving her household effects down to her mother's in Turkey Cove preparatory to leaving for Richmond the first of the month.

P. H. Wells, formerly meat cutter at the Cooperative Trading Company, has resigned his position, and moved to Big Stone Gap, where he will have charge of the Commissary at the Big Stone Gap Iron Furnace. Mr. Wells won many friends here who regret to see him leave, but wish him every success in his new venture.—Appalachia Progressive.

Alec Bean, of the Ford Service Shop at this place, and Dan Hill, of the passenger service, went over to Chilhowie Wednesday morning in Mr. Bean's racer.

Mrs. Samuel Graham, of Pochontas, Va., who is visiting her mother Mrs. Sallie Flannery and family spent a few days visiting at Big Stone Gap this week. Mrs. Graham will return to her home Friday.—Wise Virginian.

Friends of Miss Ellasue Wagner will be pleased to learn that she arrived in Vancouver on August 8th and expects to sail for Kobe, Japan, about the 10th. She will be at sea at least 14 days. On her arrival at Kobe she will continue her journey for some days till she reaches Sogodo, Korea, which she expects to do by August 28th. Miss Wagner won many friends while in Big Stone Gap and in knowing her we feel a great loss in giving her up to go to the work she loves so well. She has done a great work among the Koreans, and recognizing her efficiency we shall expect more wonderful things of her in the future. All her friends will anticipate, with pleasure, her safe arrival in Sogodo.

The U. S. Trachoma Hospital at Coeburn will hold a special clinic the whole of Thursday and one-half of Friday, August 24th and 25th, under the auspices of distinguished oculists from Washington for the treatment of trachoma; all applying with any eye trouble will be carefully examined free and those suffering from trachoma, will be treated in the hospital without charge. This will be an excellent opportunity for expert advice free of charge. No glasses fitted; nothing to sell. Remember the dates August 24th and 25th.

Don't Suffer From Heat

You Can Prevent It If You Come To Us.

Do You Know that this drug store is full of remedies for those who suffer from the excessive heat? And do you know that these remedies are very simple and cost but little? It is easy to keep comfortable in hot weather when you come to us.

Mutual Drug Company

INCORPORATED

BIG STONE GAP, VA.